

MOSES

Comparison: Universalism, Inclusivism and Exclusivism

Understanding "One Way"

Concept	Universalism	Inclusivism	Exclusivism
Everyone who is "good" will go to heaven.	●
Everyone who loves God, however they conceive of Him, will go to heaven.	●
Jesus saves some who don't know or understand the Gospel's historical facts.	●	●
Willingness to turn from sinfulness is necessary to be reconciled with God.		●	●
A sincere desire to be at peace with God is necessary to be reconciled with Him.		●	●
We cannot earn God's forgiveness or earn our own salvation with obedience.		●	●
Our souls are saved by the grace of God alone.		●	●
All sins are forgiven on one basis alone: Jesus' death and resurrection.		●	●
Christians must tell the world about the Gospel.		●	●
We must understand Jesus' death and resurrection to trust Jesus and be saved.			●
We must ask forgiveness on the specific basis of the Passion's facts to be saved.			●
